

Students from our last Law Class, had this to say:

“The instruction blocks covered a lot of ground, with relevant examples, wonderfully appropriate humor (for the target audience), pulled no punches, and disparaged no student for questions asked, and integrated information well.” Paul Arroyo

“Good lecture, good notes. Very informative to help prepare us for what to do after a defensive force situation.” Manny Perez

“Honest, usable information from someone who is, and has been, involved in the process many times.” Ann Monroe

“Excellent! Did not know that there was that much to understand about the aftermath of what happens after a self-defense incident.” Frank Bresnan Sr.

“Jim presented his material in a down to earth manner. (No lawyer speak.) He also could laugh at himself. These things make the audience comfortable. I liked that.” R.D. Boettcher

“Good information about what to do if you ever get taken into custody. When, and when not to give a statement to law enforcement. Good information on dealing with 911 call and dealing with your family after an incident.” Larry Cruz

“Aftermath is a wide-ranging topic. All the issues brought up and all examples used had tremendous value.” Tom Shalles

“I like that he is very up front and just spits out the truth – no beating around the bush. Of course, now I will change my plans for dealing with the aftermath and take further steps of avoidance.” Laura Long

“I enjoyed Jim’s presentation extremely well. Well-spoken from his background as a police officer and lawyer. I will attend any session ever given by him in this region.” Robert Emerson

“Practical advice from an active attorney in his field, an expert witness and from a former policeman.” Jim Stuart

“Thorough ... followed the outline. Didn’t mind being asked dumb questions. Well prepared with what he covered and I really enjoyed listening and learning from Jim.” Patricia Celestino

“Great speaker! Lots of good information that I had never thought about before. I have to re-think my firearms inventory.” Billy Phillips

“I liked Jim’s advice on what you “should” do, not what you would “automatically” do, during a violent confrontation.” Janet Smith

“A great amount of useful information. This is the only way to get this information.” Stephen Holtz

Gun Laws & YOU!

Jim Fleming

J. B. Herren

On this weekend, Jim Fleming and J.B. Herren will transform the classroom into a (faux) deadly encounter, and you will become involved in the process of what happens next. You will come away with an increased knowledge and understanding of Gun Laws and the Judicious Use of Deadly Force.

This is a class-participation weekend. You may become part of the action. You will witness a felonious scenario acted out in our classroom-courtroom. What did you see? Be a good witness. Articulate the details to our arriving officers, on-scene. Can you identify the evidence involved in the attack? Who initiated the assault? Who caused the violence? Could any of that violence been avoided? Were there any other choices available that may have led to a different result?

What were the circumstances that led up to the attack? What did you see? Can you articulate what happened to the arriving investigators? And most importantly; how would you handle the AFTERMATH of the assault? Were you the one involved in the shooting? What would you say? ... And to WHOM would you say it? Silence may not be the best answer ... and unbridled statements and accusations may only make matters worse.

This is the weekend that will guide you through the complicated maze of Gun Laws & the Judicious use of Deadly Force. No two encounters will ever be exactly the same. You must know and UNDERSTAND the laws surrounding the use of deadly force BEFORE you are forced to defend your life ... and the lives of your loved-ones.

This is the AFTERMATH of the attack: Solving Problem #2

Gun Laws Matter

If you know and understand the laws and protocols surrounding the use of deadly force during a lethal encounter and you will become part of the plan ... and part of the solution.

If you are ignorant of the law (and that is never an excuse) you will become part of the problem.

In a deadly encounter you will be faced with solving TWO problems:

- Problem #1: SURVIVE the attack. You will need the proper gear and the training to use it, in order to survive the attack.
- Problem #2: IF you survive the assault, now you must survive the courtroom attack. You will need to understand the laws surrounding the prudent and judicious use of the deadly force.

During this weekend you will learn from one of our country's leading authorities on what to expect if you DO manage to solve Problem #1 ... and are now faced with surviving Problem #2.

- What do you say, and to whom?
- How would you preserve the witnesses and the evidence?
- How do you deal with neighbors, friends, your own family, the media and the police?
- How would you protect yourself legally in the ongoing battle to safeguard your life and liberty?

Join us and you will come away with more confidence and the security and knowledge of knowing what to do, should that unavoidable moment in your life present itself. Welcome to our family of students.
