

Advanced Handgun Combat Skills for Self-Defense (Level One)

Emphasis is placed on improving the shooter's ability to make rapid multiple shots on both single and multiple targets at varying distances . A brief review of marksmanship and gun handling skills 'tune-up' will be conducted at the onset of class. Students are required to have previous shooting experience before taking this class. This is not a beginners shooting class.

This course includes both classroom instruction and live fire at an outdoor range in Monticello with lead instructor, Jim Fleming.

Students will need to bring their own handgun and 300 rounds of suitable target grade ammunition. Additional details about the class available upon request or reservation.

Tuition: $225 per student. ($50 down payment to reserve your seat. Balance due day of class.)
